Product Description

Ketone Ester white powder CAS 1208313-97-6 with factory price and door to door services

What is Ketone Ester?

It's the world's first ketone ester and it is used by a lot of the world's leading athletes. Ketone Ester is basically raw beta-hydroxybutyrate (BHB) ketone, a compound that is produced in the liver during periods of extremely low carbohydrate intake.

When the body is pushed to the limit, it produces fuel for its cells in the form of ketones. Ketones have fueled humanity since the dawn of time, with ketosis being a vital survival mechanism during long hunts and lengthy spells without food.

Ketone Ester Benefits

Ketones are back-up fuel for the body. They are naturally produced in the liver and highly efficient as an energy source. The body creates ketones as a byproduct of fat breakdown when it's low on carbs (such as in the low-carb 'ketogenic' diet). Ketones are also produced whenever you fast, are starved, or during long periods of physical exertion.

Performance Boost - This drink gives you the strength and energy to go faster for longer.

Faster Recovery - This natural fuel offers supernatural results when it comes to fast recovery.

Improved Focus - Cognitive improvements help you perform at your best.

Easy Usage - Just drink the ketones and go!

Instant Results - You achieve a state of ketosis in just a few minutes.

Unusual Taste - The taste of the drink may not appeal to everyone and can be hard to stomach

Refueling Issues - Bottle design not user-friendly when refueling on the bike.
